

NATIONAL MEN'S EQUIPPING CONFERENCES

The Champion For Church Based Men's Ministry

ISI Men's Conference in Northwest Montana

The conference ministry is designed to give visibility to a regional ministry that encourages and equips churches to train men for spiritual leadership in the home, church and community. This spring, the first Iron Sharpens Iron Conference was held in Kalispell, Montana on May 17th. A full house of six hundred Montana Men experienced the first ever national men's conference to ever come to their great state.

Twenty Years in Vocational Men's Ministry

Brian Doyle, Founder and President

In 1994-1995, Brian moved from working in industry and volunteering with Promise Keepers to becoming the first and only PK Staff in New England. This transitioned in 2000 to what we now know as Iron Sharpens Iron. The focus then and now is being a clear champion for church based men's ministry. In 2005, Brian gathered a handful of friends who were grassroots men's ministry leaders in different parts of the nation and invited them to start the ISI National Network. In 2007, the National Network was launched in 20 cities and now over 60 cities host a one-day men's equipping conference each year.

This photo is from the August 2014 National Meeting in Chicago where ISI Network Leaders come from around the nation for a time of training and encouragement. Momentum for 2015 is strong.

2015 Spring Conferences in the Northeast

Daniel Lagan and the team in the West Hartford Office continue to offer exceptional conferences across the Northeast. These equipping conferences exhort men and resource men but most of all they offer first class training through the sixteen different equipping seminars. This unique training is rarely offered anywhere else and builds into men "with others in mind".

The Spring 2015 Conference Schedule is

- Burlington, VT 2/21
- Hartford, CT 3/21
- Albany, NY 4/11
- Portsmouth/Portland 4/25
- Worcester/Hudson 5/16
